San Francisco Police have arrested three suspects involved in a series of robberies in the city. Two adult suspects, Travell Council, 19, Eddie Tillman, 18, both San Francisco residents, and a male juvenile committed a number of robberies on March 4th and 5th , including a carjacking. The carjacking incident led to an officer involved shooting on George Court in which Tillman was taken into custody. Investigators developed information that led to the arrests of the outstanding suspects. The suspects used a distinctive looking long barreled gun in their robberies.

Tillman and Council were booked on multiple robbery charges and carjacking.
