A woman walking westbound on Raymond Street was suddenly shot in the elbow with a BB gun. She told Ingleside Officers Mora and Naser that she hid behind a parked vehicle and called police. She had no idea who shot her but she did tell the officers she heard two teenagers nearby speaking to each other. An ambulance was summoned and the victim was transported to UCSF Hospital for treatment. The officers canvassed the area for surveillance video and found one resident who promised to send the footage to police. Report number: 180762770
