On the afternoon of Friday, February 26, 2021, missing teens Kaitlin Gallaread and Tyler Sexton were found by Pittsburgh, CA police after a Pittsburgh City maintenance worker recognized them and notified police.

Both teens appear to be in good health are reportedly not the victims of any crime.

The San Francisco Police Department would like to thank the Pittsburgh Police Department and the Public Works employee for their assistance in locating the teens. We also appreciate the interest and support of Bay Area residents and news media in bringing this investigation to a safe resolution.
