On May 20, 2017 between the hours of 6:15AM and 11:00AM, a shooting took place on the 100 block of Alhambra Street in Marina District of San Francisco. The victim, 32 year-old Kelly Freeman, was sleeping on the steps of a building when he was shot by an unknown suspect. At approximately 11:30AM, the resident of the building called the police to report a man sleeping on his steps. Responding officers performed a well-being check on Freeman and saw that he was bleeding from a head wound. Paramedics responded to the scene and transported Freeman to a hospital where it was determined that he had been shot. Freeman was pronounced deceased at the hospital.
