SAN FRANCISCO – The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Bureau of Diplomatic Security (DS), the San Francisco Police Department and the Daly City Police Department have arrested an individual suspected of damaging the Consulate General of the People's Republic of China office in San Francisco without incident last Friday.

According to a criminal complaint, Yan Feng, 39 of Daly City, Calif., detonated incendiary or explosive devices in the vicinity of the front entrance of the Chinese Consulate in San Francisco on Jan. 1, causing significant property damage.

On Jan. 3, Feng self-surrendered to officers from the Daly City Police Department.
