The San Francisco Police Department is investigating a vandalism incident that occurred at a school on the 100 block of Oak Street. The incident is believed to have occurred overnight and the vandalism is in the form of graffiti spray painted on a wall and playground surface. The SFPD Special Investigation Division is actively investigating this incident to determine if it amounts to a hate crime. Anyone with information on this crime is asked to call the Anonymous Tip Line at (415) 575-4444 or Text A Tip to TIP411 and begin the message with SFPD.
