The San Francisco Police Department's Homicide Detail arrested Taaron Bragg, 21 years of age, San Francisco resident, for the murder of Camilo Senchyna-Beltran. Bragg was initially arrested for an unrelated robbery warrant and a misdemeanor theft warrant by Bayview Station officers who recognized Bragg from a wanted homicide bulletin. Investigators were able to develop information which identified Bragg as the suspect for the homicide.

In this incident, Senchyna-Beltran, was murdered at 20th/Mission in the early morning hours of December 7, 2014. Senchyna-Beltran suffered a gunshot wound and was transported to San Francisco General Hospital and later died of his injuries. Bragg was booked at San Francisco County Jail on one count of murder, one count of attempted murder and for the outstanding warrants. No booking photo is available at this time due to pending identification matters.
