On 12/31/2013 at approximately at 9:45 am a pedestrian was walking W/B Turk Street in the south crosswalk on a green light. A vehicle (black BMW) ran red the light, struck the pedestrian, backed up and stopped. A female driver got out of the car and walked away. Her boyfriend got into the drivers' seat and drove away W/B Turk Street. Both of them were arrested and booked at Tenderloin Police Station.

As a result of the collision impact, the pedestrian was thrown into the intersection and in the path of a white van, which ran the victim over. The white van backed up and parked along the south curb line on Turk Street. The driver of the white van never identified himself to Police at the scene and eventually drove away, in violation of felony hit and run. The victim was hospitalized and continues to recover.
