On 12/31/2013 at approximately at 9:45 am a pedestrian was walking W/B Turk Street in the south crosswalk on a green light. A vehicle (black BMW) ran red the light, struck the pedestrian, backed up and stopped. A female driver got out of the car and walked away. Her boyfriend got into the drivers' seat and drove away W/B Turk Street. Both of them were arrested and booked at Tenderloin Police Station.

As a result of the collision impact, the pedestrian was thrown into the intersection and in the path of a white van, which ran the victim over.
