On Tuesday, October 24th, 2019 at approximately 8:05 AM, officers responded to the 1300 block of Stockton Street regarding an assault call. Upon arrival, officers discovered an adult male victim with blood on his face. The victim stated that he was attacked by several juveniles.

The victim said that he observed several juveniles attacking one male juvenile. A male suspect exited a building and began chasing and throwing rocks at the suspects attacking the male juvenile. Those suspects fled the scene. The male who chased them apparently believed that the witness was a part of the group attacking the male. That suspect ran over and began striking the victim. Approximately six other suspects joined in on the attack against the victim. The suspects fled the scene in an unknown direction.

Medics arrived on scene to evaluate the victim and discovered that he had several stab wounds to his back. The victim was transported to the hospital and was listed in life-threatening condition. That victim has since been upgraded to non-life threatening condition.

Investigators located surveillance cameras which revealed the seven suspects attacking the victim. Officers were able to recognize all seven suspects.

On Wednesday, October 30th, at approximately 7:45 AM an operation was conducted by the SFPD to locate and apprehend the suspects involved in the attack.

Thirty-four-year-old San Francisco resident Tahren Denson, thirty-three-year-old San Francisco resident Devin Reagans and twenty-year-old San Francisco resident Bryan Perez-Cruz were all booked at the San Francisco County Jail for charges ranging from attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, mayhem, battery causing serious injury and conspiracy.

Three juvenile suspects who are all San Francisco residents were also arrested and taken to the Juvenile Justice Center. They were all booked for attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, mayhem, battery causing serious injury and conspiracy.

On November 4th, 2019 at approximately 10:05 AM, the seventh and final suspect was taken into custody as he was observed entering 850 Bryant Street. Twenty-two-year-old San Francisco resident Shaheen Ali was booked at the San Francisco County Jail for attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, mayhem, battery causing serious injury, conspiracy and a probation violation.

This is an ongoing investigation. Booking photos will not be released at this time.

Although arrests have been made, anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the SFPD 24 hour tip line at 1-415-575-4444 or Text a Tip to TIP411 and begin the text message with SFPD. You may remain anonymous.
