On Friday, February 11, 2022, at approximately 12:35 am, a hit and run traffic collision occurred on 3rd Street and Fairfax Avenue in San Francisco. The victim, a bicyclist, sustained life-threatening injuries and remains in critical condition. The suspect fled the scene.

The suspect vehicle is described as a black Nissan Altima sedan, with a model year between 2013 and 2016. The suspect vehicle sustained damage to the front bumper on the passenger's side and was last seen traveling southbound on 3rd Street, to westbound Galvez Avenue to southbound Phelps Street.

A stock photo of a 2015 Nissan Altima sedan is attached to this news release for reference.

Investigators are asking anyone with information - including cell phone or surveillance camera video - regarding this incident to call the SFPD 24-hour-tip line at 1-415-575-4444 or Text a Tip to TIP411 and begin the message with SFPD.
