This morning at approximately 7:55 a.m. San Francisco Police officers assigned to Mission station attempted to detain a suspect in the area of 16th St. and South Van Ness Ave. The suspect fled from the officers and a brief foot pursuit ensued. During the foot pursuit, an officer-involved shooting occurred. The suspect concealed himself behind a vehicle and continued to shoot at officers

Members of the SFPD Tactical Unit responded to the scene and assisted to take the suspect into custody. No one was shot as a result of this incident, but the suspect was transported to a local hospital for a non-life-threatening injury.

This incident is being investigated by the San Francisco District Attorney's Office, the SFPD Investigative Services Division, the SFPD Internal Affairs Division, and the Department of Police Accountability.

Additional information will be released as it becomes available. As part of the SFPD's commitment to transparency and accountability, a town hall meeting regarding this officer-involved shooting will be held within 10 days.
