

On August 4, 2022 at approximately 2:30pm, San Francisco Police Officers assigned to the Community Violence Reduction Team served a search warrant on the unit block of Reuel Court.

As officers were preparing to serve the search warrant, the subject of the search warrant exited the residence. Officers went to detain the subject, who then attempted to flee. Officers were able to stop the suspect from fleeing, detained him, and found that the suspect was armed with a pistol. Officers detained three other suspects, all of whom were found to be in possession of firearms.

The following firearms were recovered from the four suspects (photo of all seized weapons accompanies this new release):

- Glock Model 21 .40 caliber pistol
- Glock Model 22 .40 caliber pistol
- Glock Model 27 .40 caliber pistol
- Privately Made Firearm .223 caliber rifle

Officers served the search warrant on the premises. During the search, officers seized the following items:
