Updated Photos of Persons of Interest Released

On February 8, 2026, two victims walked into the Northern District Police Station to report a physical assault that occurred in the early morning hours of the same date.

The victims reported they were standing in front of a business located on the 3100 block of Fillmore Street when they were approached by a group of unknown male subjects. After a brief verbal altercation with the subjects, the victims walked away. Soon after, the subjects approached the victims again on the 2000 block of Union Street and physically assaulted them. Both of the victims sustained extensive injuries and were hospitalized as a result.

This case remains an open and active investigation by the San Francisco Police Department. Investigators are seeking the public's assistance in locating the people of interest in this case.

Updated photos of the people of interest are attached to this news release.

Anyone with information should contact the SFPD at 1-415-575-4444 or Text-A-Tip to TIP411, beginning your message with 'SFPD'. You may remain anonymous.
