On November 5, 2017 at 4:19AM San Francisco Police officers took a stolen auto report at Webster and Pine Street. The victim, a 43 year-old, male, Daly City resident reported that while stopped at a red light, the suspect opened the door and dragged him out of the car. The suspect then fled the scene. On November 7, 2017 at approximately 12:29AM, uniformed San Francisco Police officers driving a marked SFPD radio car spotted the stolen Honda at the fueling pumps of a gas station on the 1500 block of Van Ness Avenue. As the primary officers approached the vehicle, the suspect started the car, shifted into reverse and sped away with the pump's fueling nozzle still attached to the car. Additional uniformed officers responded to the gas station on foot. As the suspect drove in reverse through the gas station, he headed directly towards one of the other officers who had to move quickly to avoid being run down by the car. The suspect fled the scene and evaded arrest despite efforts to locate him. The Honda was recovered at approximately 3:00AM that morning, parked and unattended on the unit block of Leavenworth Street.

Through the course of an investigation which included the dissemination of crime alerts, the suspect was identified. On November 16, 2017 at approximately 2:14AM, uniformed SFPD officers saw a black Ford parked inside a gas station located at Franklin and Turk Street. The Ford had been reported stolen from the 900 block of Franklin Street on November 11, 2017 at 8:40PM and the officers recognized this vehicle as one in which a suspect had from officers earlier in the evening. The officers saw a subject matching the one wanted from the November 7th incident walking away from the Ford. As officers closed in to detain the subject, he fled on foot but was quickly taken into custody. The subject was positively identified as the man wanted in connection with the November 7th assault.

Daniel Haile Zeru, a 33 year-old male, Hayward resident was booked at San Francisco County Jail on charges of attempted murder, aggravated assault, possession of stolen property, and vandalism in connection with the November 7th incident.
