National Night Out--America's Night Out Against Crime--is Tonight, August 5, 2014. So get out, join your neighbors and friends, and do something fun and positive in your community.

National Night Out is designed to:

Celebrate community accomplishments.

Strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships.

Help you socialize with your neighbors and the SFPD.

Get involved in San Francisco's National Night Out! It's the perfect way for your Neighborhood Watch groups to do something social with each other and with the Police Department. Activities include BBQ's, softball games, resource fairs, entertainment, and presentations by community leaders.
