I have been walking around the district recently and one can feel the excitement and buzz in the air as we welcome in the Holiday Season. Holiday decorations abound in the Streets, in merchants stores, and residents homes. There is a nice feeling all around our district. With that said, there are a lot more people walking around in the area. My officers are aware of this and we have made it our goal to be as visible as possible.

There has been a lot of excitement at the Station too. My Lieutenant has reenacted the "Buy Bust Program," this is a program in which undercover officers purchase narcotics from the narcotics dealers on the street. It's amazing how quickly the dealers find out that we are in full enforcement mode and vanish once they see a few of their co- dealers being arrested.
