Captain Jack Hart's Message

Wed, January 31, 2018

"It has always been my firm belief that policing is one of the noblest professions. The actions of any police officer—in an instant—can impact an individual for life, and even a community for generations. Given this realization, every police officer must be centered on what's important. Service, justice, fundamental fairness—these are the foundational principles in which every police action must be grounded." —Dr. Stephen R. Covey

What Dr. Covey reminds us with these words—that are as true today as they were 20 years ago—is that every interaction we have with members of the public must be grounded in high moral principles, beliefs, and ideals which serve a cause greater than self. I am proud to have taught the last 53 SFPD recruit classes, countless in-service trainings, and many Blue Courage courses to thousands of police officers around the country. In every opportunity I get, I share this quote and its challenge for us at Ingleside Station to be great because the stakes are that high. You count on us working hard every day to be more ready than we were yesterday to embody these ideals in service of keeping you, your families, and your property safe. In 2018, may you never need to call a police officer. If you do, I hope that you find us living up to these ideals and proving that we are, indeed, San Francisco's finest.

Captain Jack Hart
Commanding Officer

Featured Officer of the Month

Officer Francisco Morrow & Officer Darwin Naval

From Academy classmates to School Resource Officers (SRO's), an SFPD partnership was formed between Officer Darwin Naval and Officer Francisco Morrow ten years ago. They knew this partnership would last, as they are both great listeners. Officer Naval would have to endure Officer Morrow's long tales of living in Wisconsin as a kid and chasing wildland fires as a firefighter in Southern California. Officer Naval, in turn, would regale Francisco with stories of patrolling the Stonestown Galleria with his "mountie" hat in his former life as mall security.

Throughout the month of December, I personally witnessed Officers Morrow and Naval deeply engage their community of students, staff, and parents. Whether it was forging a new partnership with Visitacion Valley Middle School to enable police officers to help students with their reading skills to managing a safe campus and safe school dismissal after an unrelated shooting that occurred near a school, December was a busy month for them. Yet, their resolve—forged through their relationships—withstood the challenges.

They, as well as Ofc. Marie-France Conciecao (a fellow SRO who was in Europe during December), have accomplished these noteworthy heights through their relentless determination to solve community problems and by forging deep interpersonal connections grounded in the principles of respect, empathy, and trust. They are seen as tremendous role models both within the school district and in the police community. In 2018, they will continue to build on these relationships while tackling emerging issues such as cyber bullying, social media use, and campus security.

Featured Citizen of the Month

Roberto Pena

On 11/21/2017 at approximately 1418 hours, a 16-year-old named J. Calix was playing a pickup game of soccer at Crocker Amazon Playground with some friends. During play, the ball was kicked in the direction of a male, later identified as Eliezer Hechevarria, who was walking across the field. Calix went to pick up the soccer ball from the area of Hechevarria and suddenly, without warning or provocation, Hechevarria used a pair of surgical scissors to slash Calix in the upper arm twice. Hechevarria turned and fled across the field and onto Geneva Avenue. Mr. Roberto Pena observed the entire incident from approximately 50-60 yards away. He confirmed that Calix was stabbed, called 911, and then followed the suspect both on foot and in a vehicle continually updating dispatch on the suspect's location. When the suspect began to walk through the children's playground area of Crocker Amazon, he feared for the safety of the dozens of children that were playing there and who were unaware of what this violent felon just did. Without regard for his own safety, he exited the vehicle that he was safely inside of, grabbed a tree branch to defend himself and others in case Hechevarria attacked again, and chased after the subject ensuring that he left the playground onto Moscow Street. When officers arrived, he immediately identified Hechevarria as the stabbing suspect. This quick identification allowed officers to search the immediate area where Hechevarria was apprehended and locate the weapon, which was a pair of surgical-type scissors.

Definition of Community Policing

Community policing, or community-oriented policing, is a strategy of policing that focuses on police building ties and working closely with members of the communities.

- Homeless Outreach and Outreach to Drug Users: Ingleside Station officers coordinate with city agencies to provide outreach and assistance to rehabilitate those who are dependent on illegal drugs and outreach to homeless individuals to connect them with resources and support.
- Foot Patrols: Ingleside Station has foot beat officers assigned to the Geneva and Cortland corridors.
- Monthly Police Community Relations Meetings: Community Meetings are held continuously. Station personnel also attend meetings with merchants groups, business groups, development authorities and others. Concerns are voiced and addressed through problem solving.
- Email Updates: Ingleside Station sends out newsletter updates to residents in the District that alerts residents of crime trends, upcoming community events, crime prevention tips, and information on how to contact officers at the District Station.

Definition of Suspicious Activity

Suspicious activity is any observed behavior that could indicate a crime-related incident has been committed, or about to be committed. Unusual items or situations: A vehicle is parked in an odd location, a package/luggage is unattended, a window/door is open that is usually closed, or other out-of-the-ordinary situations occur.

The following are some examples of Suspicious Activity that are “In progress” crimes, which demand an immediate call to 9-1-1:

- ◆ An individual peering into vehicles, to try, and locate any valuables left unattended.
- ◆ An individual trying door handles to vehicles, and/or residences to gain access to the vehicle and/ or residence.
- ◆ An individual checking front doors of residences to locate any unattended packages, or

Arrests:

2:54am San Jose & Richland D.U.I

Ingleside Officers Burke and Anderson were dispatched to a traffic collision involving a vehicle colliding with a parked car. When they arrived they found the driver of the vehicle unable to walk steadily. His breath smelled, his eyes were bloodshot and watery, his speech slurred. Because of his injuries he was transported to San Francisco General Hospital. At the hospital a phlebotomist drew a blood sample for testing. He was cited at the hospital for the DUI and left in the care of physicians, who said he would be under treatment for some time. Report number: 180076173

9:41pm 200 Blk. Oneida Stolen Vehicle

Sometimes an officer's memory is his best tool. On this evening it was so for Ingleside Officers Jensen, Seavey, and Barajas. They were on patrol when they spotted a "frequent flyer", a man who they had arrested many times before for vehicle theft, possession of stolen vehicles, narcotics violations, and activities in and around gambling establishments. He was on active probation with a search condition. The suspect was standing at the corner of San Jose and Ocean. The officers parked their patrol car and Officer Seavey exited the vehicle and followed the suspect as he walked east on Ocean Avenue. He walked for a short distance down Ocean before turning east on Oneida Avenue. While walking east the officers observed the flashing lights of a vehicle being unlocked. The suspect entered the vehicle and closed the door and laid down in the back seat. The officers walked up to the vehicle and asked the suspect to step out. He complied without complaint. The Toyota Sequoia he was lounging in was reported stolen in San Francisco. He was placed in custody and charged, yet again, with possession of a stolen vehicle, possession of burglary tools, and possession of methamphetamine. Report number: 180078812

The officers found no evidence of the suspect. The victim said several weeks ago she found a tent in her backyard made from a painters tarp. She said she walked up to the tent and asked "Is anyone in there"? A man, occupying the tent said, "Yes", exited the tent, apologized, and then jumped over the backyard fence to escape. The victim said she found her futon, comforter, towels, cookies, bottle of wine, pears, English toffee, and a pillow inside the tent. She told the officers that she believed the burglar entered her home through an unlocked garage door. Report number: 180077739
