CAPTAIN'S MESSAGE:

Captain Michelle Jean
Commanding Officer
Richmond Station

Hello Richmond District Residents,

Recently a family visiting San Francisco on a “Make a Wish” trip with their son had their car burglarized. A concerned citizen called the police and was able to take a photo of the get away vehicle. Officers arrived and assisted the family with the police report and detailing the items stolen. The one item the family wanted back was their son’s Beats by Dre Headphones, that he had saved up for and bought during his time in cancer treatment.

The Officers told the family that the burglars often discard items they deem not valuable near the scene and they may locate their stolen items soon. The family gave them their information but didn't have high hopes. Officers located most of the stolen items shortly after and alerted the family to come to Richmond Station to retrieve the items.

Officers noticed the headphones were not in the recovered items and decided to come together with their own money to buy the young man a new pair of Beats Headphones. When the family returned to the station to retrieve their belongings they were presented with the new pair of Beats Headphones. The Officers told the family they did not want their memories of this trip to San Francisco to be based only on a bad incident. The family were touched by the officers act of kindness and wrote a letter of appreciation detailing the story. Officers all over the city go above and beyond everyday, and I wanted to share this touching story about Richmond Station Officers with the community they serve.

NEWS RELEASE

August 13, 2018

The San Francisco Police Department Marks its 169th Birthday

Today, August 13th, marks the one-hundred sixty-ninth birthday of the San Francisco Police Department.

At its founding in 1849, the SFPD consisted of a small force of 35 members. The chief, an assistant, three sergeants and 30 officers comprised the first regular metropolitan police department in San Francisco.

Today, the SFPD has grown to a modern urban police force consisting of five bureaus, including the San Francisco International Airport, whose sworn and civilian members are dedicated to providing safety with respect to all.

The shoulder patch on the SFPD uniform bears the motto, "Oro en Paz, Fierro en Guerra," "Gold in peace, Iron in war." This motto reflects what it means to be a San Francisco police officer.

Gold in peace; a public servant, shining brilliantly as members of the communities we serve.

Iron in war; resilient Guardians possessing the skills and courage, putting others' wellbeing above our own.

As we celebrate the 169th birthday of our Department, we pay tribute to those who serve today, to those who came before us and we remember our fallen heroes whose names are inscribed on the perpetual wall of honor. We take great pride in our legacy and in the fine men and women who will carry our mission, be it yesterday, today, and well into the future.
