Captain Robert Yick's Message

Dear Residents and Community Members,

On Tuesday, January 29, 2019, San Francisco SAFE (Safety Awareness for Everyone) hosted the first "Milk Tea with a Cop" in the Central District at VIP Coffee & Cakes Shop at 671 Broadway. The event was inspired by the successful "Coffee with a Cop" and targeted the Asian community. A number of Central Station bilingual officers attended the event and had Asian style milk tea with the members of the community.

Since the Lunar New year is upon us, San Francisco SAFE and Central Station officers provided community members with piggy banks and flyers that contained safety tips, as it was common years ago for criminals to intimidate and extort merchants this time of year. I would like to thank San Francisco SAFE Executive Director, Kyra Worthy and Public Safety Coordinator, Wesley Chui for coordinating this event.

Compared to December and the 2018 monthly average: the incident numbers for robberies are down; aggravated assaults and auto burglaries are significantly down, but residential and commercial burglaries are slightly up.

Please remember to dial "311" when you see debris on the sidewalks and streets. Together, we can keep our district clean.

If you have any questions or concerns that impact your neighborhood, please contact me at Robert.Yick@sfgov.org or call me at 415-315-2400. Thank you for your support and have a happy Lunar New Year.
