Suspect Driving a Silver or Gray Sedan Struck a 64 Year-old Pedestrian Before Fleeing the Scene

On February 26, 2019 at approximately 8:07pm, San Francisco police officers responded to California Street and 18th Avenue regarding a hit and run collision.

Preliminary information indicates that the victim, a 64 year-old female San Francisco resident was crossing California Street at 18th Avenue when she was struck by a motor vehicle. CITIZENS OF THE MONTH

TRACI TERAOKA

Presidio Heights resident, Traci Teraoka opened her store, Poetica Art and Antiques nearly 8 years ago on Sacramento Street. In that time she has worked to create a business that helps connect her to fellow merchants and the community. It's not unusual to see a spontaneous gathering of customers, neighbors, kids and dogs assemble outside of her shop doors. For Traci, this is the soul of her work ethic - building community and strengthening our ties to one another.

For nearly five years Traci served as co-chair of the Richmond Station Neighborhood Community Advisory Board while also steering the Sacramento Street Merchants Association.

In 2018 Traci was awarded District 2's APA Heritage Month recognition and in 2008 she was a Jefferson Award recipient for her contributions to make San Francisco's "Maitri" AIDS care facility less institutional and more home-like.

Huckleberry is Traci's 7 year old shop dog, and is well known to all those that regularly visit Sacramento Street. He's a mix of Shih-Tzu and poodle. Huckleberry is known for being friendly and welcoming to all people and many dogs that visit the shop. Many neighbors stop by just to say hello to Huckleberry.

Traci also has a 19 year-old son. He was born and raised in San Francisco and is now attending the University of Oregon.

Traci said she would like to encourage all to build relationships in your community, just as she has, as both a local shop owner and resident.
