The SFPD wants to hear from YOU, our key stakeholders

We are committed to excellence in law enforcement and are dedicated to the people, traditions and diversity of our City. Our mission is to provide service with understanding, response with compassion, performance with integrity and law enforcement with vision.

We welcome your comments. Let us know how we're doing, what we could be doing better and your thoughts on how your police department can work more closely with the community it proudly serves.

Your feedback will help SFPD better serve our City. Your comments will be reviewed by our Community Engagement Unit and forwarded to the relevant unit, department office or neighborhood station for review and follow up, if appropriate.

You may also visit sanfranciscopolice.org/police-commendation-complaint for more information on providing input on SFPD policies and practices.)

With over 2,300 different telephone numbers listed to access local government services, many people did not know what number to dial to reach the appropriate department. Now you can connect to city services with only two numbers to remember: 911 for emergencies and 3-1-1 for everything else.

Before 311, over 50% of calls to the 911 center were not emergency related. 311 relieves 911 operators from these non-emergency calls. If a catastrophic emergency such as an earthquake occurs, 311 operators will be able to provide accurate information to assist during the recovery. In the unlikely event the 911 facilities becomes inoperative, the 311 call center will function as a back-up.

SFPD Participates In Pink Patch Project

On Tuesday, October 1, 2019, the women and men of the San Francisco Police Department will join law enforcement agencies around the country in the Pink Patch Project, a collaborative effort created to raise awareness and funds for breast cancer research and treatment. Members of participating agencies will wear specially designed pink versions of their department patch to encourage public awareness about the importance of early breast cancer detection.

SFPD, in partnership with the SF Police Officers Association, plans to raise funds through the sale of Pink Patches for Bay Area Cancer Connections, a non-profit organization that provides personal care and support to breast and ovarian cancer patients and their families. The department last year raised $25,000 for the organization.

Members sporting Pink Patches will pose for a department photo Wednesday, October 2 at 2PM at SFPD Headquarters (1245 3rd Street) and will be available to speak to the media.

To donate directly to Bay Area Cancer Connections, please visit bayareacancer.org. SFPD Pink Patch t-shirts, wristbands and lapel pins are available through info@sfpoa.org.

Pictures of SFPD Pink Patches are included with this media advisory. The SFPD has also created a social media video (vimeo.com/290974357) to highlight the project.
