Requesting a Court (Restraining) Order

SF Court ACCESS Center

415-551-0605

sf.courts.ca.gov/self-help/restraining-orders

You have the right to seek a Restraining Order to:

- Restrain the attacker from abusing you and other family members.
- Direct the attacker to leave the household.
- Prevent the attacker from entering your residence, school, business, or place of employment.
- Award you or the other parent custody of or visitation with a minor child or children.
- Restrain the attacker from molesting or interfering with minor children in your custody.
- Direct the party not granted custody to pay support of minor children, if they have a legal obligation to do so.
- Direct the defendant to make specified debit payments coming due while the order is in effect.
- Direct either or both parties to participate in counseling.

District Attorney's Victim Services Division (VSD)

Assists with crisis support services and counseling, providing information on your rights as a crime victim, emergency relocation and safety planning, and more.

May file a criminal complaint, when requested.

Contact VSD – 628-652-4100 / victimservices@sfgov.org

California Victims' Compensation Program (CalVCB)

You have the right to file a civil suit for financial losses resulting from the abuse, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, and other expenses from injuries sustained and damage to property, and any other related expenses incurred by you or any agency which shelters you.
